Hi Tracey

As discussed. There has been no change in RTA policy to how vehicles are to be registered in the name of the Scout's Association.

Following from previous emails and complaints changes have been made to the RTA policy page which is accessible by all RTA officers to establish what requirements are required for organisations established under the Act of Parliament (Scouts is even mentioned as an example).

Below is the relevant sections of the policy page for providing an organisation's identity. The text in red is relevant to your organisation.

Proving an organisation's identity

A motor vehicle can only be registered in the name of a legal entity. For registration purposes, a legal entity is:

- A natural person, or
- A corporation, ie a company established by law and registered by the Australian Securities & Investment Commission (ASIC), or
- A corporate body established by an Act of NSW or Federal Parliament.

See Summary table of evidence required to prove organisation identity, below, for some examples of corporate bodies and the documentation required.

A corporation's customer identity is a combination of its name and business address. If a corporation also operates from another address (eg two separate administration centres), it may be given separate customer numbers on DRIVES for each address.

Note: Proof of business address is not required.

If a vehicle is being registered in the name of a corporation which is not already established in DRIVES, a corporation representative must attend the registry in person and provide the corporation's POI. .

Other types of incorporated organisations

Some corporate bodies do not have an ACN or ARBN, or the letters 'Ltd' or 'Pty Ltd' as part of their name because, for example, they are established by an Act of NSW or Federal Parliament. Some of these organisations include:

- All government agencies and departments
- Australian Mutual Provident Society (AMP)
- Australian Gas Light Company (AGL)
- Public hospitals
- Park and cemetery trusts
- Universities
- All County, City, Municipal and Shire Councils
- Any organisation formed to provide recreation or amusement, or promoting commerce, industry, art, science, religion, charity or other subjects useful to community needs, and registered under the Companies Act (eg Leagues, Golf or Bowling clubs, Police Boys, Scouts and other service groups).
- An association incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act.
- A Co-Operative Society incorporated under the Co-Operatives Act.
- An owners' corporation incorporated under the Strata Schemes Management Act.

Note 1: photocopies of evidence for establishing or transferring registration are acceptable.
