The hall will soon be "completely functional" again, and with the recent completion of their kitchen, will be back better than ever.

MP Adam Marshall announced the grant, wowed by the work already undertaken in the old hall.

"I was delighted to be back in Inverell last week to deliver some more good news for the Inverell Scouts, with another $31,000 grant from the State Government to continue the upgrades to their hall," he said.

The funding, secured through the Crown Lands Covid Stimulus Fund, will be used to replace all the old windows and install a new security fence around the hall.

"The Scouts recently completed their last upgrade project - a new kitchen - which was also funded by the State Government," he explained.

"I cannot wait to see the new works completed, which will make the hall completely functional again and better than new!"
